Your Manufacturing Partner

About our sponsor....

Olympic Tool is a modern machine shop involved in the manufacturing of machine parts and critical components for the Aerospace Industry. Olympic is one of the few Boeing subcontractors who meets the requirement of "Boeing Preferred Supplier". As a preferred supplier, Olympic Tool provides Class A Critical, Flight Safety parts, fuel and rotor components as well as complete assemblies. Olympic Tool's commitment to quality has also earned them NADCAP and ISO 9001 certifications.

They have been a strategic supplier on Boeing rotorcraft programs such as the AH-64, CH-46, CH/MH-47, HH-47 and V-22 programs. In addition to the rotorcraft programs, Olympic Tool also supplies highly specialized parts on fixed wing aircraft such as the F-14, 737, 747, 767 and 777.

Olympic Tool specializes in comprehensive component management and advanced machining. Their capabilities include CNC & Manual Operations of 3,4, and 5 Axis Milling, Turning, Cylindrical Grinding, Surface Grinding, Broaching, Honing, Gun Drilling, Blanch Grinding, and Thread Milling. Olympic also manages all special processes for their components including, but not limited to, shot peening, heat treating, plating and painting.

Olympic Tool employs 70 people in a 75,000 square foot building located in Aston, PA. They have been a loyal sponsor of the American Helicopter Society, Philadelphia Chapter for years.
