

AHS Mideast Region Lichten Award Competition

ALL ARE WELCOME!

The Philadelphia chapter is pleased to announce the annual Lichten Award Competition for the Mideast region will be held on Tuesday, January 11th, 2011. The Lichten Award competition provides an incentive to AHS members, who have not previously presented results of their work at a technical forum, to begin presenting at local and regional AHS meetings.

A 20-30 minute presentation will be ranked based on personal contribution, originality, technical content, relevance of contribution, organization, and clarity. The winner of the regional competition will receive a cash award and will prepare a paper from the presentation for submission to the AHS National Forum for the national competition.

Presentations:

“Rotating Testing of a Low-Power, Non-Thermal Ultrasonic De-Icing System”
Austin Overmeyer, The Pennsylvania State University

“Two Speed Transmissions Gearbox Concept Study for Large Civil Tiltrotor” Yiyi Zhang, The Boeing Company

Date/Time:

Tuesday, January 11th, 2011, 3:00-5:00 pm

Location:

Boeing Campus, Building 3-04, First Floor, col D4 (REC Room)

Following the competition, the monthly AHS dinner will take place at 5:30pm at D’Ignazio’s Towne House (117 Veterans Square, Media PA). All AHS members and non-members are welcome to attend the presentations and dinner (AHS member cost for dinner is $25, non-AHS member cost is $35).
